Join us for an engaging site visit at the University of Lynchburg, where you will have the unique opportunity to network with esteemed faculty and passionate students from the Counseling Program. This event will provide an enriching environment to learn about the innovative approaches and practices taught within the program and explore potential collaborations and mentorship opportunities.

During the visit, you'll hear from staff and faculty members about the school history and culture of the counseling department. You'll also have the chance to participate in interactive discussions with current students about their experiences and insights into the counseling profession. The event will include a tour of the facilities designed to create a supportive learning atmosphere for aspiring counseling professionals.

Whether you're a student considering a career in counseling, an educator seeking partnerships, or a professional in the field, this site visit is a perfect opportunity to connect, share ideas, and expand your network. Join us for what promises to be an inspiring and informative day at the University of Lynchburg!
